

Sara Learns to Swim

Genre: Fiction Reading Level: 300L Grade: 1st

---

Sara stands at the edge of the pool. She feels nervous. The water looks deep and cold.

“Come on, Sara!” calls her swim teacher, Miss Kelly. “You can do it!”

Sara remembers what Miss Kelly taught her. She takes a deep breath. Then she jumps into the water with a big splash!

The water feels cool on her skin. Sara kicks her legs like Miss Kelly showed her. She moves her arms back and forth. Sara is swimming!

“Great job!” says Miss Kelly with a smile. “Keep going!”

Sara swims all the way across the pool. When she gets to the other side, she holds onto the wall. She feels so proud of herself.

“I did it!” Sara shouts happily.

Her mom and dad clap from the side of the pool. They are so proud of Sara too.

Sara cannot wait to come back next week. Swimming is fun!
